Students, faculty, and staff are eligible and urged to apply for funding for programs whose goals meet the guidelines for the CACP Grants Program. The Grants Program funds proposals up to $2,000. Funds can be requested for a one-time program/event as well as for a continuing program/event. Proposals that demonstrate a strong educational component will be given priority; the general guidelines for a CACP funded grant are below.

The deadline to submit applications for funding through the Spring 2005 CACP Grants Program is 4:30 p.m. on Friday, October 29, 2004.

Proposal Guidelines:

- Collaboration with groups with distinct cultural differences.
- Impact that exists beyond program or activity.
- Educational component linked to a class or academic program.
- Includes the active involvement of faculty, staff and students.
- Collaborations between the colleges, academic departments and student affairs/student activities office.
- Committed financial sponsorship from other organizations or student groups.
